OBD OBJA SYMPOSIUM 41: At the Juncture of Worlds: Slovene as a Second and Foreign Language

GUIDELINES FOR AUTHORS

1. The text must be submitted at the latest by 20 May 2022 on the website <https://centerslo.si/simpozij-obdobja/>. Authors are responsible for ensuring the linguistic suitability of their contribution.
Contributions which do not adhere to the guidelines with regard to length, layout and formatting, citations and other technical guidelines will be rejected at the first editorial review. In such instances, authors can amend their contribution in line with the guidelines and resubmit it.
2. The text of the paper can extend to a maximum of 20,000 characters with spaces (all the characters in the document, including the abstract, notes and literature). The abstract of the poster can extend to a maximum 1500 characters with spaces (all the characters in the document, including literature).
3. At the beginning of the text, the following information should be provided, which will appear in the symposium monograph:
 - Name and surname of the author(s),
 - Title and name of the institution where the author(s) is/are employed – please write the institution name in full,
 - E-mail of the author(s).
4. The paper should include an abstract (roughly five lines) in Slovene and English and five key words, also in Slovene and English.
5. The paper should include an introduction (aim, context), a definition of the theme or question, taking into account existing findings, a presentation of the methodology used, results (if research involved), findings and their application, and the impact for the discipline, language users and society.
6. The text should be written in Times New Roman, font size 11, with line spacing of 1.5.
7. Paragraphs should be separated by an empty line and without indentation; longer citations (more than five lines) should be separated from the surrounding text, beginning on a new line and written in font size 10.
8. Separate parts of the text or chapters should be numbered and headed. Numbering begins with 1: for example, 1 Introduction, 2 Hypotheses, 2.1 and so on.
9. Sources of citations should be included in the main text in brackets – for example (Zupan Sosič 2011: 35) – and clarified in the bibliography at the end of the paper.
10. Omission in a citation should be indicated by three dots in square brackets: [...].
11. Notes should be footnotes (i.e. at the foot of the page where the relevant piece of text appears).
